Art League Pictures

The Kiloheana Art League opened its twentieth semi-annual exhibition last night with a private view attended by the members and invited guests only. The exhibition, generally speaking, is not as good as usual. This is especially true of the water colors. A large number of the pictures showed a lack of the technique which is absolutely necessary to produce the clear and light aspect essential to a good water color sketch. It is especially in the skies that this fact is noticeable. The oil paintings hold a higher average, generally speaking.

Of the water colors Mrs. Helen Kelley's productions are easily head and shoulders above the rest. Mrs. Kelley has the necessary technique, chooses her subjects well and executes them with taste and clearness. Mrs. Kelley's two large pictures "After Cocanuts at Waikiki" and "Play Time", an excellent beach picture, are without doubt the gems of the water color collection. There were also a number of charming smaller pictures from Mrs. Kelley's brush.

Impressionism was represented by Philip H. Dodge and Mrs. May Mott-Smith. Mrs. Bird has a very good picture, "The Early Morning Light on the Call Building, San Francisco", while Mr. Dodge's principal work of this kind is one of his favorite Venetian impressions. Mr. Dodge also has several good bits from Southern California.

Miss Edith King is a prolific exhibitor with pictures of both Hawaiian and Californian subjects. The latter must be said to be generally superior to the former.

Julian Greenwell also has a number of views on exhibition, one or two of which are very good.

Lau Sheong's "Duck Ponds" also deserves mention.

Among the oil paintings Matteo Sandona's two large canvasses, "Sudden Lights" and "Roses", are easily the best. While the careless drawing of a hand somewhat mars the effect of the first of these, the splendid light and shadow effect and the exquisite face are excellent. The second picture seems to be much better than the first. Mrs. Henry Highton has two studies of Chinese children, "A Symphony in Pink" and "Going to the Joss House", of which the latter is especially good. Mrs. May Mott-Smith has a pleasing canvas, "Iris, the Egyptian", and "Scrub Oaks", a study in poster effect.

A case of miniatures by Ethel M. Richardson was a pleasing change from some of the so-called miniatures which have graced the Kiloheana exhibitions in former years.

Ferdinand Schultz's "Legend of St. George" is an odd old-fashioned series of four pictures in plaque effect.

Ernest Parker's "Grape Panel" is a very decorative piece of work.

Among the other exhibitors are Walter E. Pinkham, Mrs. W. M. Graham, L. T. Cheong, Grace Robertson, Mary Laughlin Beardmore, Dr. Wm. L. Moore, Ethel M. Richardson, L. Teng Sheong, Mrs. Robert More, Annie H. Parke, Allan Dunn, Cordelia Gilman, Mrs. Belle Jones, Miss A. B. Tabor, Nettie W. King and Alice Spalding.

The exhibition will be open to public inspection from now until November 21 from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. and from 7 until 9 p. m.

ANOTHER CALL TO THOSE WORKING WITS

Today in the People's Amusement corner on page 6 of The Bulletin there appears a new prize puzzle which will run until Monday, November the 20th, on which date it will close. The only condition placed upon the winner of the prize is that the correct answer be given.

The prize offered is a six months subscription to The Evening Bulletin. The puzzle editor will take charge of and duly register in his puzzle book all answers as before in the popular B. A. P. prize puzzle contest. The name of the successful guesser will be published in these columns and some of the best of the other solutions received.

In this prize puzzle as in the other one just completed the puzzle editor suggests at the outset that everything be taken into consideration. There is no catch, nothing that you cannot guess, but of course you must use your brains.

Send in all your solutions to B. A. P. as before, as this address, being so closely associated with The Bulletin's Amusement Corner will be continued as a puzzle address. Start today; keep at it tomorrow.

PRECINCT RETURNS OF MAUI COUNTY

The Maui News says of Maui County election results:

The News courteously extends congratulations to the winning candidates—and sincerely hopes that it may be eventually justified in extending like congratulations to the people of Maui.

At present writing however it gives one the shivers to look over the list of winners. There is no doubt but that the coalition of the Democrats and the Home Rulers, tended to greatly strengthen the Home Rule ticket, and the best men on the ticket are from the Democratic ranks. No particular individual strength manifested itself, however, and no matter who had been on either ticket, the result would have been the same.

The new officials will find themselves up against a hard proposition, for the initiation of county government on Maui will prove no child's play. As the News editorially suggests, our new officers should be given a fair chance to establish an honest and economical county government, and if they fail to do so, then it will be time enough to pitch in to them.

Some curiosity is felt as to whether all the new officials will be able to give the required bonds. In case of such failure on the part of the supervisors, the Governor appoints and for other officers, the Board of Supervisors holds the appointing power. It seems likely at present that several of the newly elected officers will be unable to give bonds, unless the surety companies care to take the risk.

The total vote on Maui was something over 1300, and the average Home Rule majority is about 190.

The detailed vote of Maui County is given as follows:

Dr. Shoop's RHEUMATIC CURE COST NOTHING IF IT FAILS.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer. I am a specialist in Rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy or trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any more sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you, anyway. If it fails it is free.

Address: Dr. Shoop, Box 331, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.
